1. Forced evacuation of the population living from within 15 to 20 kilometers of the Yugoslav-Bulgarian border is at present taking place. The evacuation order applies particularly to individuals of the Bulgarian minority, or those with relatives in Bulgaria.
2. Evacuated individuals and families are placed in camps which have been established at a distance from the border sectors. Thus a camp in which there are approximately 4,000 persons, including women and children, has been set up near Aleksinac for the border area of Nis. The men in these camps are employed as workers on forced labor projects.
